

MEYCAR to consolidate operations and strengthen market presence in Spain

- All branches to be unified at the Colmenar Viejo headquarters and central warehouse
- Strategic consolidation began January 1, 2026

Hamburg, 17.02.2026 – MEYCAR, one of a group company next to MEYLE, took a strategic step to further strengthen its position in the Spanish market. Since January 1, 2026, the company consolidated all operations and its logistics platform under one roof at its headquarters and central warehouse in Colmenar Viejo (Madrid). The goal is to optimize logistics and service models to ensure greater efficiency and stronger processes.

"From our modest beginnings with just 300m<sup>2</sup> of warehouse space, MEYCAR has grown to an impressive 4,000m<sup>2</sup> facility in Colmenar Viejo. This expansion, with us now housing over 24,000 MEYLE references, reflects our commitment to ensuring product availability, providing reliable service, and strengthening our long-term partnerships across Spain", explains Juan Soriano Lloret, Sales Manager at MEYCAR.

This expansion not only increases storage capacity and product availability but also sets the stage for closer collaboration with distribution partners across Spain. Marc Siemssen, Member of the Management Board at MEYLE explains this strategic move: "Our strong partnerships with leading distribution groups in Spain, combined with the ongoing consolidation of the market, have driven this strategic decision. By also enhancing direct shipments from MEYLE's central logistics hub in Hamburg, we are committed to delivering not only efficiency but also the reliability and care our partners value most."

Moreover, MEYCAR will invest in advanced logistics projects, automation, and process optimization to boost order accuracy and customer satisfaction. In line with MEYLE AG's global strategy, the company will also expand its commercial and customer service teams, providing even more personalized support for partners across Spain.
