

BREMBO CONFIRMS LEADER STATUS IN THE MAIN MOTORSPORT COMPETITIONS

The competition record of the company is enriched with over 62 world titles won in 2021, a success earned in more than 45 years at the highest level of Motorsport

Stezzano (BG), Italy, 14th December 2021 - Brembo, a global leader in braking systems, celebrates the end of the 60th year since its foundation in the best way, confirming its technological supremacy in Motorsport with 62 world titles achieved in the major two and four wheel competitions in 2021. The Bergamo-based company reaches a new record: throughout its 47 years of global presence in the different racing competitions, the company has never won so many titles as in this year, and now it counts more than 500 championships obtained over time.

The experience gained through years on the track racing represents the privilege laboratory for Brembo, where the latest solutions are tested and then transferred, over years to come, to street vehicle production. The approach confirms the company's mission to become a trusted Solution Provider, alongside the most important manufacturers of cars and motorcycles, to offer the best driving experience.

Motorsport titles that also include important victories achieved with the support of the brands part of the Group, like Marchesini and AP Racing (since 2000), and two brands recently acquired by the Bergamo-based company: SBS Friction and J.Juan. SBS Friction is the leading and preferred developer, producer and marketer of aftermarket brake pads and friction solutions for motorcycles, scooters, ATV/UTV, special cars and industrial applications, and J.Juan, a leading company in the development and manufacturing of metal-braided brake hose and brake system components for the motorcycle industry.

In Formula 1, all of the 22 Grand Prix races in the current season have been won by cars equipped with Brembo components. The Bergamo-based company can boast victories in 463 out of 807 Grand Prix that have taken place since 1975, the year of the debut in Formula 1, until today, for a total of 27 world drivers' championships and 31 world constructors' championships won with the top teams.

Brembo's dominance also continues in MotoGP, to which are added new wins in Moto2, Moto3 and World Superbike (also with Marchesini). Over 500 victories in the premier class (500 class and MotoGP): for the sixth consecutive season Brembo supplied all the 30 riders who raced at least one race in MotoGP this year relied on the high performance and safety levels guaranteed by Brembo components.

However, the winning series started in 1995: since that year, all the races have been won by bikes equipped with the brakes of the Bergamo-based company. Since the MotoGP class was introduced in 2002, all the 347 GPs have been won by bikes equipped with Brembo brakes. Beside, from 1976 to 2001, 185 additional GPs have been won by bikes with Brembo solutions in 500 class and this makes the total of more than 500 victories in over 45 years of presence in the top level of Motorsport racing.

Brembo boasts, therefore, success in 33 world riders' championships, and 34 world constructors' championships won with the main MotoGP teams.

Twenty-one was also a winning year in Electric Motorsport. The third consecutive season for Brembo as the exclusive supplier of all the 24 electric Gen 2 single-seaters of the FIA Formula E championship, the third consecutive championship in FIM MotoE World Cup and the 18 Ego Corsa of Energica Motor Company.

In addition to the already mentioned Formula 1, Formula E, MotoGP, Moto2, Moto3, MotoE and WSBK championships, it's important to mention also GT, NASCAR, IndyCar, Enduro, MXGP, EWC, WEC, IMSA, DTM, Formula 2, Formula 3, Trial, WTCR, WRC and many others for a total number of over 500 world titles won from 1975 up to the present in the different categories.
